

P05 Complaints and Appeals Policy

Purpose

The purpose of this policy and procedure is for Queensberry College of Vocational Education (QCVE) to define the system of the principles of natural justice and fairness in place to deal with complaints and appeals involving the conduct of: (Standard 6, Clause 6.1-6.6)

- the RTO, its trainers, assessors or other staff
- a third-party providing services on the RTO's behalf, its trainers, assessors or other staff or learner of the RTO
- Education Agents and any other external stakeholders.

Definitions

1. Complaint – a statement that something is unsatisfactory or unacceptable which requires a systematic or formal resolution.
2. Complaints can include but not limited to the following:
 - Enrolment process
 - Processes
 - The quality of the training delivery
 - Assessment outcomes/including recognition of prior learning
 - Issuing of results, certificates and /or statements of attainment
 - Any other activities associated with the delivery of training and assessment services
 - Conduct of the RTO in regard to its recipients
 - Conduct of other students
 - Issues arising from third party providers on behalf of the RTO
 - Other issues such as, discrimination, sexual harassment, victimisation, disability discrimination and bullying
3. Appeal - to apply to a higher authority or external body for review of how a complaint process was handled or in relation to an unfavorable decision made against them.
4. External Appeal - A request for an independent, external review of a decision and handling of a particular scenario
5. Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA).

The Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) is the national regulator for Australia's vocational education and training sector. ASQA regulates courses and training providers to ensure nationally approved quality standards are met.

ASQA can investigate complaints about:

 - the quality of the training that you receive
 - registered training organisations that you believe have breached the required standards
 - the marketing/advertising practices of organisations claiming to be registered training organisations, or to offer nationally recognised training.

6. The Overseas Students Ombudsman investigates complaints about problems that overseas students or intending overseas students may have with private education and training in Australia. The legal basis for the Ombudsman role is the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Legislation Amendment Act 2011, passed by the Australian Parliament on 21 March 2011.

The Ombudsman:

- provides a free service
- is independent and impartial, and does not represent either overseas students or private education providers
- can make recommendations arising out of investigations
- is a function of the Commonwealth Ombudsman

The Ombudsman can only investigate a complaint if:

- it relates to a private education provider registered with the Australian Government on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas students (CRICOS)
- the problem relates to an overseas student who is already studying in Australia on a student visa or is intending to come to Australia soon.

The Ombudsman cannot investigate a complaint if:

- it relates to a public or government education provider. These complaints can be directed to the Ombudsman for your state or territory.

The Ombudsman may also decide not to investigate complaints if:

- the complaint has not first been raised with the education provider
- another organisation is better able to help.

Responsibility

1. The CEO is responsible for ensuring this policy and procedure is implemented and executed accurately and effectively.
2. The Management Team handles all complaints and appeals relevant to their area of responsibility.
3. Trainers and Assessors Operate in accordance with Queensberry College of Vocational Education Complaints and Appeals Refer any formal complaints to the relevant management member
4. Administration Staff Maintain the complaints and appeals register, in conjunction with the management team

Requirements

1. The handling of a complaint or appeal is to commence within ten (10) working days of complaint or appeal lodgement.
2. A complaint or an appeal must be resolved, and outcome communicated to the parties involved within 20 working days.
3. Where Queensberry College of Vocational Education considers more than sixty (60) calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, Queensberry College of Vocational Education will inform the complainant or person lodging an appeal in writing, including reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required; and regularly updates the complainant or person lodging an appeal on the progress of the matter.
4. A written record of all complaints and appeals is maintained by Queensberry College of Vocational Education inclusive of all details, lodgement, response/s and resolution.
5. A formal complaint or appeal will be at zero cost to the complainant/appellant.
6. The complainant/appellant may be accompanied by a support person at any relevant meeting.
7. The complainant/appellant will have access appropriate access to his/her records, following the Queensberry College of Vocational Education Records Management Policy.
8. The complainant/appellant will receive a written statement of the decision made, including details of the reasons behind the decision.
9. The complainant/appellant will have the opportunity to access an independent body to Queensberry College of Vocational Education to review his/her complaint or appeal following the internal Queensberry College of Vocational Education process been exhausted.
10. Queensberry College of Vocational Education will maintain the enrolment of the complainant/appellant during the Complaints and Appeals process.
11. Decisions or outcomes in the favour of the complainant/appellant shall be implemented immediately.
12. Complaints and Appeals are to be handled in the strictest of confidence and privacy must be maintained at all times.
13. Complaints and appeals are to be considered based on procedural fairness and lead to opportunities for improvement as a Continuous Improvement Report.
14. Recognition of Prior Learning must be structured to minimise the cost and time to applicants whilst retaining the integrity required by ASQA to recognize competencies in accordance with the requirements of Training Packages or Curriculum documents.

The provider must ensure that any applicant for Recognition of Prior Learning is provided with

- Information about the competencies and performance criteria relevant to their Recognition of Prior Learning application.
- Adequate information and support to enable them to gather reliable evidence of competency.
- Opportunities to obtain feedback on the evidence proposed prior to finalisation of the application.

Competencies for which RPL is being requested may have been developed through formal education and training, through work experience or training or through life experiences.

A written statement from an appropriate supervisory person is required to confirm authorship of any work submitted.

It is accepted that RPL is an assessment of an individual's current knowledge, skills and attitudes even though the evidence produced in support of the claim for recognition may be drawn from the past. It is up to the RPL assessor to judge whether the evidence produced demonstrates current knowledge, skills and attitudes.
